2019 PIONEER OF THE YEAR

Michael Mosca

I remember so clearly the day I fell in love with movies.

My mom took me to see THE TEN COMMANDMENTS at our local theatre in the Rosemont district of Montreal. I was barely 6 years old. The spectacle of the film kept me in awe. That was followed a year or so later with an outing to see an Italian Western film where I cried at the end when the sympathetic, good-hearted outlaw died in a gunfight. I practiced my dying scenes in every playtime story I made up. I wanted to give people an emotional jolt in things I would write and/or act in. Then at 9 or 10 years old, came Christopher Lee's DRACULA and the nightmares it gave me (what was my mother thinking!!).

By the time I saw DIAMONDS ARE FOREVER with my best friend, I was hooked, totally deep-fried!! This was my life!! But, life is not always what you imagine it to be and dreams change or deviate. Trying to please my parents by becoming a doctor did not exactly pan out, and while at Queen's University, somehow found myself working part-time at the Famous Players Capitol theatre in Kingston. A good line here would be, ".just when I thought I was out, they pull me back in!" That was 1979 and have been in this business ever since. From Famous Players I got a job in Toronto as Assistant Manager with Odeon in 1980 at that remarkable salary of $178.00 per week. THE LUXURY LIFE was MINE!! Toronto, here I come....Debtville soon followed.

But I was young and happy (Fool, I tell you, FOOL!) Met Anna at the Dufferin Drive-in where she worked as well, married a few years later and have been together ever since. I'll skip the boring transfers and promotions between 1980 and 1983 (you can read that bio in the 2008 Pioneer Award Dinner book). AND HERE is where the Pioneer story comes in. Anna and I, barely back from our honeymoon, were given tickets to go to my first PIONEER OF THE YEAR award dinner by my boss at the time, Morris Appleby of the Cineplex Eaton Centre. I believe it was in the month of May 1983. We were 23/24 years old and looking at these old guys being honoured, not having a clue who they were or what they did...so I know what you young people are saying or thinking of me right now! BUT, there was a draw and all night long the MC was making a big deal of the surprise grand prize and how we want to make sure we stayed to the end. Naturally, everyone stayed. Anna and I watched as 25 dollar certificates for one thing or another were drawn and a special poster of this or that, and finally the BIG prize...yep, my number was called! So I go up to claim my prize all confused and looking like Bambi in headlights, to be given a white envelope. I remember saying to myself "Geez, all that hype for another restaurant gift certificate." They opened up the envelope and it turned out to be a cruise for two on a WINDJAMMER! But the good fortune did not end there. We took our Bahamian cruise as a one-year wedding anniversary trip and 9 months later, our first of three magnificent daughters was born. Thank you, Pioneers.

I served as Vice-president of the Quebec Picture Pioneers in 1991-1993 and enjoyed helping out veterans in the industry in need. So years later, in 2007, the Quebec pioneers asked me if I wanted to be their president, how can I say NO?? The Pioneers started my family! Twelve years later, I am still president, the longest one in Quebec history and still enjoying helping people in need. I was humbled when I received that call from Clinton Young announcing that I was going to be Pioneer of the Year 2019. I took the call thinking, "Why me? What have I done? I should have done more."

I have so many people to thank for this incredible 40 year journey in the industry (not quite over yet). It has taken me from theatre usher to assistant manager, manager, Director of Operations to Vice-President and President, CEO of Distribution to Producer and Executive Producer. Our successes are not built nor achieved alone. Life is like a puzzle (or a box of chocolates, depending to whom you listen). There are a whole bunch of pieces that have to come together and support the bigger picture. To all those 'pieces'; my mentors, colleagues, friends, acquaintances, bosses, employees, thank you just doesn't seem enough. I have been deeply touched by having been selected as Pioneer of the Year and deeply honoured to have gotten to know so many wonderful people in the biz. Of course, this journey would have meant nothing if I could not have shared it with Anna and our girls, Alyssa, Ashley and Nikki.

Ahhhh, yes. Lest I forget to complete the loop of my story... ..in 2012, I had the honour of taking my mom to the premiere of a film I produced.

2019 SILVER SPOTLIGHT RECIPIENTS

Nuria Bronfman

2019 SILVER SPOTLIGHT RECIPIENT

Growing up in a Spanish/Argentine household in Washington DC made for some "interesting" Sunday afternoon family film outings.

While other kids were enjoying Herbie the Love Bug, I was treated to as much European fare as was available at the time. Eventually I broke away from the parental excursions and discovered an extensive array of "normal" movies with my friends. But, that foundation of eclectic programming served me well when in my 20's, having graduated from Queen's University and now permanently living in Canada, I started my journey into the film industry at the Toronto International Film Festival.

Working at TIFF solidified my love for film, for Toronto, for Canada and gave me some incredible experiences that laid the foundation for the next 25 + years of my career. Not to mention, it taught me the valuable lesson that when a major Hollywood star calls at 2:00 a.m. demanding enough Evian to fill her bath the next morning, you move heaven and earth to make it happen. I was truly fortunate at TIFF to have generous mentors who prepared me for the next chapter.

After my years at TIFF, I was privileged to join the Famous Players team and so began my venture into exhibition. At Famous Players, I was extremely lucky to work with a group of people from whom I learned the ins and out of the business; they also gave me the freedom to challenge some long held industry practices in an effort to become more in tune with the communities we served. Famous Players was also where I forged some incredible relationships with colleagues at other circuits and together we worked on initiatives that I count as some of the highlights of my career, including the creation of the Access 2 Entertainment program providing people who are differently abled the opportunity to enjoy the magic of movies in our theatres.

My time at Famous Players also allowed me to further develop my belief in the importance of giving back when I sat on the Board of the Toronto Chapter of Variety. This opened my eyes to the needs of so many in our community, and led me to further my passion for donating my time to help others. More recently, serving on the board of The Stop Community Centre has been one of the most rewarding experiences of my life.

The past eight years as Executive Director of the Movie Theatre Association of Canada, has been a truly special experience. Not only do I get to take the industry to far flung places like Los Angeles, St. John's and Yellowknife (2020!) for our annual gathering at ShowCanada, I work with an incredible team that makes the conference special and unique. I have also seen first hand what an amazing industry this is - we are competitors some of the time, but supportive and cooperative most of the time. Our landscape is like no other in the world.

Along my journey, I have had the profound honour of being the mom of Max and Henry who have always made me beyond proud, and the partner to my better half Glenn, who supports all the travel, long hours and the crazy gatherings at our home with the cast of characters from this industry that I am thankful to call friends.

Andy had no idea how significant the interview for his first job upon graduation from Western Business School for "Intermediate Cost Accountant" would be for his entire career.

The Manufacturing Controller from Motorola Canada conducting the interviews that day was none other than Ellis Jacob.

Andy was fortunate to get the job during the 1982 recession and spent the next five years in various Finance and Operations positions while completing the Certified Management Accountant Designation.

With professional accounting credentials in hand, he moved to Schlumberger Industries at the Controller level, now in the world of electricity meter manufacturing!

Two years into his tenure at Schlumberger, Andy got a call from Ellis Jacob who had moved to Cineplex Odeon a few years earlier and had recently been promoted to Chief Financial Officer with the departure of Garth Drabinsky.

Although the business pages focused on the scandal and potential bankruptcy, Andy's Father gave him the best advice. He said, "although there is some financial risk to your young family, you know the team and you will be at the Head Office where the decisions are made, and actions are taken".

The 1990's at Cineplex were very challenging and provided tremendous training and growth. Unlike the vast majority of people in the theatre business, Andy had not come up through the ranks, had a family connection to this wonderful historic industry, or even been much of a moviegoer growing up. Through a professional connection, Andy landed in what he was to come to learn, is the best business in the world.

The great thing about Finance is you work with colleagues at all levels and in all areas of the company. From developing those relationships, Andy was able to skirt the major Toronto Head Office downsizing in 1998 that resulted from the merger of Cineplex Odeon with Loews Theatres out of New York.

Instead of taking a package and remaining in Finance, Andy took a risk and went to another division. Michael Kennedy had recently taken over the Canadian Film Department and was looking for some administrative and analytical support, so it was a great match.

A whole new world opened up with a cast of characters that were flamboyant, shrewd, competitive and maybe sometimes, were a little crazy.

Andy's first Trade Screening was The Matrix, for which he could barely get the report out to Michael as he was so excited.

After a couple of years of learning the ropes, it was brought to his attention that there would be an opening at Warner Bros., as the Canadian Distribution Icon Phil Carlton would soon be retiring.

Andy approached Flo Boulet and was able to convince him that he could bring a skill set that would be beneficial to Flo as he took over the reins.

When an organization has an average tenure of over 20 years on their management team, it means both the company and the people are the best in the world.

The last 18 years at Warner Bros. have flown by as they distributed the great franchises of Harry Potter, The Hobbit and Dark Knight Trilogy. Andy has had the honour to participate on distribution of many critically acclaimed films including: Training Day, Million Dollar Baby, The Blind Side, Inception, Gravity, American Sniper, Dunkirk, and most recently, A Star Is Born.

Andy thanks Jeff Goldstein, Scott Forman and the entire team in Toronto for making his career at Warner Bros. the greatest experience anyone could have envisioned.

Born in Toronto but due to my Fathers' job we moved to Orillia, Sault Ste. Marie, Kingston, Windsor then back to Toronto when I was in Grade 8.

I attended Woodbine Junior High School and then Georges Vanier Secondary School. Throughout high school, I was unsure if I wanted to go to college or get a job. During my last year, I decided that I wanted to work.

After graduating, I obtained a job with an Insurance/ Investment company. After working there for a few years I realized it wasn't what I wanted to do. It was the end of June 1974 and I decided to leave and take the summer off. That lasted for a few weeks and then one morning my father tossed a Scarborough Mirror on the kitchen table and said "Get a job!" Searching through the classified section I saw an Ad that interested me. It read "Film distributor requires secretary, shorthand an asset, but not mandatory, call for an interview." I didn't have shorthand but did have my own form of speedwriting, and shortly after connecting with the Company, I was offered an interview. When I was given the address, I realized that it was the MCA building and I had been there, I was a spectator when it opened a few years prior. My interview was with a man called Barry Carnon. In his office on the wall there were posters of Robert Redford and Paul Newman from THE STING, which had just won the Oscar for Best Picture. I remember thinking that if I could look at these all day, this would be my dream job! I got the job and started on July 29, 1974. I knew nothing of movie Marketing, but Barry was a great teacher... he was a showman, a gentleman and my mentor. It was just the two of us for years, but then the Department expanded and Barry asked me if I wanted to do Advertising or Publicity and Promotions, I chose the latter.

Barry was a member of the Canadian Picture Pioneers, and early on I learned what a great charitable organization it was. He was a Past President and in 1988 he was Pioneer of the Year. I have attended as many Pioneer Events as I could through the years to support this amazing organization. I worked for Barry for 15 years until he passed away early 1989. In July of that year I was promoted to Director of Publicity and Promotions, a position I held until June 2009 where I was promoted to Vice President, Publicity and Promotions.

I had the privilege of working on over 700 films during my 44 ½ years with Universal, and worked under six owners. Some of those films were the biggest franchise hits at the Studio, four JAWS’, three BACK TO THE FUTURES’, three MUMMYS’, five BOURNE’S, three PITCH PERFECTS, five JURASSICS, and eight FAST AND FURIOUS’ and many films starring Minions.

I've lived in Ajax for almost 20 years and have two wonderful children; who I am so proud of. Michael is a Firefighter for the City of Toronto and Jennifer is Regional Business Development Manager for a Luxury Boutique Hotel Chain in Toronto.

2019 DIAMOND
SPOTLIGHT RECIPIENT

It was exactly twenty years ago, in 1999, when I was honoured by the Canadian Picture Pioneers with an Ancillary Award at the 59th Annual Award Dinner.

Tonight is the 79th. That was three years after I'd retired from 44 years of management in the Motion Picture Theatre industry. I've now been retired for 23 years but I have remained in contact with the industry and people I have loved so much.

It all began for me straight out of High School in April 1952 when I was hired as a 'Student Manager' for Famous Players Theatres. Movie Theatres were closed on Sundays then and my starting salary for a 6-day week was $20.00. Six months later I moved up to $22.50 a week.

I began my career at the suburban Broadway Theatre but in 1955 I moved downtown to Famous' International Cinema on Granville Street and was promoted to Assistant Manager. Onward and upward as I became a full-fledged manager in 1957 when promoted to the Paramount Theatre in New Westminister. Still in New Westminister I was moved to the Columbia Theatre and eventually took over management of both houses, which were located less than two blocks apart.

In 1965 I received a Christmas present of a move back to downtown Vancouver and the 1200-seat Strand Theatre on Georgia Street. I'll never forget those long line-ups for Alfred Hitchcock's PSYCHO. In April of 1969 the recently opened Richmond Square Twin Theatres needed a manager and I was elected. Then the big things began to happen.

On December 31st, 1969, Famous Players' icon Ivan Ackery retired and I was picked to become the new manager of the city's showplace, the 2,800-seat Orpheum Theatre. The film for me to remember there was THE GODFATHER. We filled all 2,800 seats twice a night.

In 1976 the Orpheum was sold to the City of Vancouver and it closed as a movie theatre. I marked time at Orval Fruitman's soft porn cinema the Eve (very educational, I must admit) until the Vancouver Centre Twin Cinemas opened in 1977. That was my home until my retirement on February 29th, 1996.

In 1996 I became the Secretary/Treasurer of the B.C. Branch of the Canadian Picture Pioneers, putting out a members' newsletter four times a year until the end of 2018. So you might say that I've now had a warm connection with the industry for 67 years. Although at age 86 I've stepped down from my executive duties I fully intend to remain on the B.C. Board of Directors and continue aiding the wonderful work of our Canadian Picture Pioneers.

As James Stewart said, "It's been a wonderful life."

CANADIAN PICTURE PIONEERS TRUST FUND

It was the year "Gone with the Wind", "The Wizard of Oz", "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington", "Stagecoach" and "Gunga Din" opened in theatres.

In 1939 a group of movie industry executives gathered to remember the passing of a friend. Jack Cohn, one of the founding partners of Columbia Pictures, was concerned that it only seemed to be funerals that brought industry friends together. Motivated by this thought, Cohn and a group of industry peers started the Picture Pioneers Inc., an organization to bring people in the industry together for fellowship and friends willing to help each other out in time of need. In the beginning membership was restricted to only those who had been in the industry for 25 years.

Many of the original Picture Pioneers members had help to start the major studios in Hollywood. In the first year over 200 other industry members joined, including some Canadians, among them pioneer theatre exhibitor Oscar Hanson and John Fitzgibbons, who later became President of Famous Players. These men brought together their friends Clair Hague and Ray Lewis to work on forming a Canadian equivalent and by the end of 1940 ratified a charter forming the Canadian Picture Pioneers. In the beginning years, it became obvious that the need for help would increase beyond what had been first contemplated, and that formal fundraising plans would have to be developed to meet such demands. An important first step in those plans would be to apply to the Canadian Income Tax Department to register what would become the Canadian Picture Pioneers Trust Fund as a qualified charity with the right to issue receipts for income tax purposes.

It took until 1947, but this all came together with the trust document that we still operate under today stating that; "the Canadian Picture Pioneers Trust Fund shall be used and operated exclusively as a charitable fund and not for the benefit or private gain or profit of any persons, or of the Pioneers and shall be used solely for the relief of needy, poor or indigent persons generally throughout Canada and more particularly for the relief of any needy, poor or indigent persons who have been or are employed or were a part of the motion picture industry, or any affiliated industry."

From the beginning the Trustees struggled to build up a sustaining capital fund. Each year, little by little, with the generous support of Pioneer members and supporting companies the fund has grown, providing more assistance to those in need each year. However the Pioneers still need your assistance. Please remember to donate to the Picture Pioneers with regular annual contributions, in memory donations and planned giving through insurance and estate planning. Thank you.

REMEMBERING

PAUL WROE

1943 ~ 2019

Paul Wroe was a true gentleman of our industry and will be missed by everyone who knew him. He joined the Canadian Picture Pioneers in 1965. He was honoured by the CPP twice, in 1990 with an ancillary award and then in 1997 as Pioneer of the Year.

Paul was born and raised in Toronto. He graduated with a Chartered Accountant degree from Clarkson Gordon (now Ernst & Young) in 1967. While at Clarkson Gordon, Paul was first introduced to the motion picture industry doing audits on several companies owned by Paul Nathanson, whose father N.L. Nathanson founded Famous Players and Odeon Theatres. In 1968 Paul accepted a job offer from Paul Nathanson as Treasurer of Empire Films Limited and Sovereign Film Distribution which involved distribution of Walt Disney films, both 16mm and 35mm, and the operation of the Mustang Drive-In Theatre circuit.

In 1971, Herb Mathers incorporated Bellevue Film Distributors Ltd. and Paul became the company's Vice President. Bellevue took over the Walt Disney franchise from Empire Films and in 1972 obtained the Twentieth Century Fox franchise for Canada. Paul worked with both Bellevue Films and Paul Nathanson's companies until 1980 when Paul Nathanson passed away, although he continued work on Nathanson's estate for another 2 years.

In 1975, Paul and Herb Mathers incorporated Victoria Film Services Limited and consolidated the film warehouse operations of Bellevue Film Distributors and Victoria Shipping Services Ltd. Paul became President of Victoria Film Services.

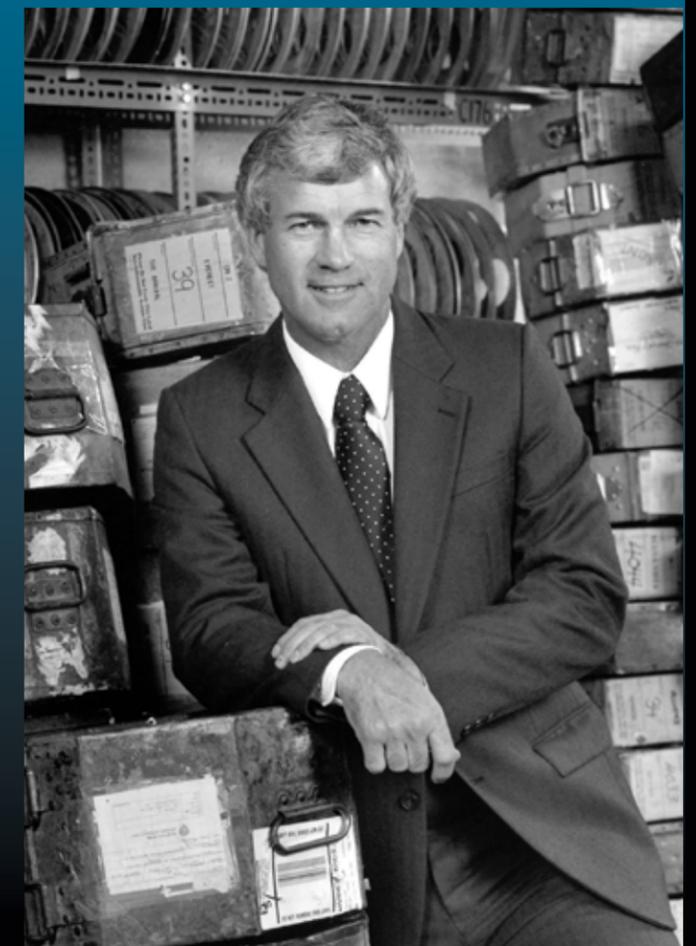

In 1979 Victoria Film Services acquired Mavety Film Delivery adding film delivery services to Vancouver, Edmonton and Calgary. Further expanding their business, Victoria Film purchased Alan Mclean Delivery Service Ltd., a Toronto messenger courier service.

Paul was President of Victoria Film Services until 2002 when he sold it to Technicolor, operating now as Canada Cinema Distribution. Although Paul retired from day to day work, he remained active in business and helping with industry charities.

Paul has played a very active role in the Canadian Picture Pioneers until his passing in July. He first joined the Board of Directors in 1984. He chaired many event committees and served on the executive. Paul was also elected in 1996 as a Trustee of the CPP Trust Fund and in 2003 he was appointed Chairperson.

Paul had a philanthropic nature and along with The CPP also served as dedicated executive with other charities.

Paul was married to Mary Lynn for 52 years. They have a daughter, Marianne, son-in-law Karl, their son Stephen, daughter-in-law Darlene and 8 grandchildren, Stephanie, Melissa, Abby, Owen, Karli, Sailor, Poppy and Jack.
