CANADIAN PICTURE PIONEERS SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMME

CANADIAN PICTURE
PIONEERS

The Canadian Picture Pioneers and Trust Fund have been providing financial assistance and fellowship for those in the motion picture industry since 1940.

In 2003 Sandy Stewart from Tribute Entertainment Media Group brought forward the idea of helping out younger people in our industry requiring financial assistance by awarding scholarships. The Trustees unanimously approved and the first Picture Pioneer Trust Fund Scholarships totaling $5,500 were awarded in 2004.

Applications are accepted in the fall of each year from eligible Canadian students who are 27 years of age and under, currently enrolled in full time studies at a post-secondary institution and who currently work or have worked in the motion picture industry within the past 6 months, or are a child/grandchild of an individual who currently works or who has worked in the motion picture industry in the past 6 months.

Each year the Trustees receive hundreds of applications from students requesting support for their studies. Students are asked to write a short essay about themselves, why they need financial assistance and explain how the scholarship money would benefit them and how their continued education will benefit society in the future.

In the few short years that the scholarships have been awarded, the Canadian Picture Pioneers Trust Fund has assisted 62 students totaling $75,000. The main funding for this project is the ShowCanada program guide produced each year by our great corporate partners at Tribute. Thank you for the support of this guide and please remember to place an ad each year so we can continue this great work. Please contact the Canadian Picture Pioneer office for additional information regarding the Picture Pioneers Trust Fund Scholarship Program.

CANADIAN PICTURE PIONEERS TRUST FUND

PIONEERS

One of the three objectives set by the founders of the Picture Pioneers, when they met in 1940, was to aid industry members in times of need. To highlight this objective, a benevolent fund was formed in 1942. In 1947, the Trust Fund was registered as a Federal charity allowing tax benefits to supporters.

The Trust Fund is managed by the Trustees. All applications are discussed in confidence to maintain recipient's privacy. Benefits range from long-term financial assistance to one-time payments or other considerations such as wheelchairs, taxi rides to the doctor and payments to cover utility bills. The money is not given as a loan, but as a gift. Grateful recipients often write to say how without the generous support provided by the Trust Fund they would not be able to manage.

At the National Annual General Meeting, John Freeborn, Canadian Picture Pioneers Executive Director, reported on the Trust Fund. In the past 62 years with generous member support, the Trust Fund has granted over $2,500,000 in assistance to fellow industry members in need. Last year, the Trust Fund provided $75,000 in assistance to recipients and a total of $15,000 in scholarships to twelve post-secondary school students.

All of these funds have been raised by the efforts of Pioneers across Canada, with the generous support of the many companies and suppliers that make up our industry. We are truly grateful for your contributions. Your continued support will ensure that the Canadian Picture Pioneers Trust Fund will serve as a living memorial to all those who have served in the past.

PIONEER OF THE YEAR

DENISE JAMES

A native Torontonian fresh out of school after completing a Business Special Course I began my amazing career in the film industry when I joined BelleVue Film Distributors in 1973. By January of 1974, I was promoted to a 16mm Sales Position. I continued with the company after they were purchased by Astral Films in the position of Office Manager and finally Canadian Non-theatrical Sales Manager of Astral Bellevue Classics.

In 1985 after the birth of my daughter Melanie and the sale of Non Theatrical Division to Criterion Pictures, I returned to Astral Films to a 35mm Sales Position. By the end of 1986 I left Astral along with the Columbia/Tristar product, to join Cineplex Odeon Films as Ontario Sales Manager.

In 1990 I was blessed with the birth of my second daughter Amanda.

In July of 1998 I joined Columbia/ Tristar Films of Canada when they decided it was time to do their own 35mm booking, where I am still working today as District Manager of Sony Pictures Releasing. A job which challenges me every day in so many different ways but it is a job like no other and I consider myself very lucky to have worked with so many amazing people.

I was actively involved over the years with the Women of Motion Picture Industry and I continue to hold the position of Vice President on the Board of the Canadian Picture Pioneers where I have been involved in a number of activities including organizing the Annual Luncheon and Children's Christmas Party and helping out with the Annual Golf Tournament. I have always enjoyed working hard on many of our events to help reach our goals and create fellowship throughout the film industry which is achieved by the commitment and dedication of myself and my fellow board members.

I am very proud to be a part of the Pioneers and I encourage all of you to take the time to volunteer to this worthy cause to help carry on the good will of the Canadian Picture Pioneers and I will continue to serve this worthy organization in the years to come. With your help, we will continue to share our good fortune as long as we are needed.

Thank you all for your continuous support.

ANCILLARY AWARD RECIPIENT

Stan Ford retired after 43 years at Deluxe Toronto in January 2009. Deluxe is the largest film laboratory and post production facility in the world.

Stan joined Film House as it was known then, in 1966. He held various positions in the sound department becoming General Manager Post Production in 1980. He was then promoted to Vice President Sales in 1986 and retired as Vice President Video & Data Dailies. In his career Stan has worked with hundreds of feature film and television projects as well as having the opportunity to work with top producers, cinematographers and directors.

In 2005 the Canadian Society of Cinematographers honored Stan with the Bill Hilson Award for his contribution to the film industry, and in 2000 Stan Ford was selected as person of the year, an award presented by Panavision, W. White Lighting and P.S. Production Services.

Stan was a member of Variety Club Tent 28, Canadian Society of Cinematographers, Academy of Canadian Cinema and Television, Canadian Film and Television Producers Association, on the Board of Directors of the Canadian Film Centre and remains a member of the Canadian Picture Pioneers.

EXT. DAY THORNHILL, ON
A mother and her 2 children are walking in a ravine. They walk at a brisk pace holding each others' hands enjoying the fresh fall air and the beautiful colours nature has to offer.
Lauren, the youngest of the two children turns to her mother with a puzzled look on her pretty face.

LAUREN
Mom. Why do we have to go to this Pioneer dinner thingy for Daddy?

CONNIE
Connie, a stunning woman with golden blonde hair turns her head and looks down at Lauren.

CONNIE
Well...believe it or not, your father is receiving an award from the Canadian Picture Pioneers. It's an ancillary award honouring his commitment to the pioneers and his career within the film industry.

Daniel, a handsome young boy shoots his hand in the air just like a student sitting in a crowded classroom.

CONNIE
Yes dear.

DANIEL
How did Dad get into the movie business?

CONNIE
Connie looks over to Daniel and smiles.
It all started when your father was in university. He really wanted to work at a studio to gain some experience in the industry, so he begged MGM and they agreed to let him roll posters and ship promo tickets as a summer intern.

DANIEL
After university, he applied to every studio hoping to get a job and only one was willing to take a chance on him.

CONNIE
I know, I know. It was Disney.

DANIEL
That's right.

CONNIE
Daniel smiles a proud smile.

2

CONNIE
They hired him as Marketing Coordinator looking after Exhibitor Relations.
(Whispering)
At the time, Disney was the only studio doing this in Canada.

DANIEL
Oooo

LAUREN
Ooooo

CONNIE
Connie nods her head.
In 1994 they sent him to ShowCanada in Winnipeg. I got the chance to meet your father there when I was working for Famous Players. He was charming and I pursued him vigorously. (Remove line as per Editor)

LAUREN
Really?

CONNIE
Really. Your Dad continued to enjoy his time with Disney and worked for awhile in the consumer products division. Then ... Coke was it.

CONNIE
Connie and the kids sit down on an old tree stump.
Coca-Cola had your Dad hopping around in Marketing and Sales.

LAUREN
What about Cineplex?

CONNIE
That happened in 2002. Your Dad jumped at the chance to join the team as their head of marketing. And do you remember what happened next?

LAUREN
No

DANIEL

CONNIE
After the merger with Galaxy Cinemas and another with Famous Players, your Dad decided he wanted to run his own business and started Mason Marketing Solutions.

DANIEL
I like the sound of that.

3

CONNIE
He had a great year and worked on a lot of exciting projects. Then Disney came calling again, and it was too tempting to set up a whole new marketing team in Canada and run it his way. And you know what?

Both kids look at their mother.

DANIEL
What?

LAUREN
What?

CONNIE
He did just that and now he has a fantastic team at Disney and really loves what he does.
(pause)
And you know what else?

LAUREN
What?

CONNIE
He wishes for both of you ... that one day when you grow up, you too will really love what you do and you'll never "work" a day in your life.

FADE TO BLACK (NEVER).

Darren Stokes. Who? Exactly!

My career in the movie business started early. After juggling three paper routes I decided to give it up for a real job. At the age of 15, my foray into movies started at Cineplex Odeon Hillcrest Mall. I did a two-year stint working floor, concession and box office positions, while setting multiple Employee of the Month records... which I'm sure stand today. I still have the popcorn pins to prove it! To give a bit of perspective of the timeline, when I started Uncle Buck and When Harry Met Sally were playing on the big screen. Cash registers were not used, so we had to add up the concession charges in our head...thank goodness everything was priced to the $0.25. We served real butter melted from big bricks; wore white dress shirts, bow ties and burgundy jackets, which I will soon petition Cineplex to bring back! Our largest theatre held a whopping 113 people, and when I departed Terminator 2 and Thelma & Louise were shooting up the screen. But I didn't stay away from the movie business for too long. While driving home from a birthday dinner I can remember passing the Warner Bros. building on Yonge Street; I said to my Dad, "I'd love to work there for my co-op placement," to which he replied, "Then do something about it." Words that would forever echo and shape my life to what it is today.

Enter Dianne Schwalm. After convincing Warner Bros. (WB) that I would work for free to earn school credit, she happily took me in and assigned me a plethora of fun and interesting tasks. I couldn't believe she said yes and that I was to be the first co-op student ever to be accepted at WB! After high school, I went on to study International Business while also serving as the WB campus rep, promoting its movies at colleges and universities across the city. Working in a hectic and creative environment for all those years taught me just as much as my formal education. I admire and respect Dianne just as much today as I did back in high school; she is a true inspiration. This path lead me to my current employer and family, MIJO. For the past 14 years, I have worked for two fantastic gentlemen - Michael Goldberg and Joel Reitman. Their leadership and guidance has played an integral role throughout my career development. In my opinion, this is a company like no other and I'm proud to be their Senior Vice President of Client Relations & Development. I'd be remiss if I didn't acknowledge the loyalty, mentorship and ongoing friendship from all of my fellow MIJOites, many of whom have been there since day one.

My career at MIJO also afforded me the opportunity to attend my first ShowCanada in 1999 where a mutual friend introduced me to my future wife (and fellow ex-Cineplex-er) Pamela Singh. We've been happily married now for four years and one of our shared passions continues to be the love of movies.

For the love of movies... This is why I started in the biz at 15. This is why I'm still in the biz almost 20 years later. I joined the Canadian Picture Pioneers in 2002, and I encourage all qualified professionals to join such a vital part of the motion picture industry. I have proudly served on the Board for the past two years and am excited at the opportunity to continue our charitable endeavors and do whatever I can to bring awareness of the Pioneers to the young professionals in our industry.
